"We delivered a strong quarter with a 33.3% year-over-year revenue increase to $104.3 million and a net income of $5.0 million. Our growth was balanced across our business segments, which once again demonstrated our business resilience despite the challenging market conditions." said Mr. Jinbo Li, Chairman and CEO of Xunlei. "In response to challenges arising from evolving industry environment, we proactively downsized our domestic audio live streaming business in the second quarter of 2023 and may continue to adjust other domestic live streaming services in the third quarter. We anticipate that the downsizing will have an impact on our revenue growth in the upcoming quarters."

"We intend to accelerate our business development to make up the lost revenues in our domestic audio live streaming business and explore new and exciting opportunities. In doing so, we will leverage our near twenty years of experience in research and development and harness our innovative capabilities. Going forward, we will maintain agility amidst evolving market conditions, capturing growth opportunities to create value for our shareholders."

Second Quarter 2023 Financial Results

Total Revenues

Total revenues were US$104.3 million, representing an increase of 33.3% year-over-year. The increase in total revenues was mainly attributable to increased revenues generated from our live streaming, subscription and cloud computing businesses.

Revenues from cloud computing were US$30.7 million, representing an increase of 8.2% year-over-year. The increase in cloud computing revenues was mainly due to increased sales of cloud computing hardware devices during this quarter.

Revenues from subscription were US$29.7 million, representing an increase of 17.0% year-over-year. The increase in subscription revenues was mainly due to higher average revenue per subscriber and more subscribers as compared with the same period of 2022. The number of subscribers was 4.72 million as of June 30, 2023, compared with 4.46 million as of June 30, 2022. The average revenue per subscriber for the second quarter of 2023 was RMB42.9, compared with RMB37.8 in the same period of 2022. The higher average revenue per subscriber was mainly due to the continuing increase in the proportion of the users opted for our premium membership.

Revenues from live streaming and other IVAS were US$43.9 million, an increase of 79.1% year-over-year. The increase of live streaming and other IVAS revenues was mainly driven by higher demand for our live streaming services.

Costs of Revenues

Costs of revenues were US$58.1 million, representing 55.7% of our total revenues, compared with US$44.3 million or 56.6% of the total revenues in the same period of 2022. The increased costs of revenues were mainly attributable to increased sales of our live streaming, subscription and cloud computing services and products.

Bandwidth costs, as included in costs of revenues were US$28.9 million, representing 27.7% of our total revenues, compared with US$25.5 million or 32.6% of the total revenues in the same period of 2022. The increase in bandwidth costs was mainly driven by the increased demand for our cloud computing service.

The remaining costs of revenues mainly consisted of costs related to the revenue-sharing costs for our live streaming business, payment of handling fees and cloud computing hardware devices.

Gross Profit and Gross Profit Margin

Gross profit for the second quarter of 2023 was US$45.9 million, representing a 35.9% increase from the same period of 2022. Gross profit margin was 44.0% in the second quarter of 2023, compared with 43.1% in the same period of 2022. The increase in gross profit was mainly driven by the increase in gross profit of our live streaming and subscription businesses.

Research and Development Expenses

Research and development expenses for the second quarter of 2023 were US$17.2 million, representing 16.5% of our total revenues, compared with US$16.0 million or 20.4% of our total revenues in the same period of 2022. The increase was primarily due to increased labor costs incurred during this quarter.

Sales and Marketing Expenses

Sales and marketing expenses for the second quarter of 2023 were US$15.4 million, representing 14.7% of our total revenues, compared with US$5.0 million or 6.4% of our total revenues in the same period of 2022. The increase was primarily due to more marketing activities as a result of our continued user acquisition efforts.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses for the second quarter of 2023 were US$12.4 million, representing 11.9% of our total revenues, compared with US$12.0 million or 15.4% of our total revenues in the same period of 2022. The increase was primarily due to the increase in depreciation of Xunlei headquarters building as we finished the construction and relocated to the new headquarters in December 2022.

Operating Income

Operating income was US$0.9 million, compared with US$0.7 million in the same period of 2022.

Other Income, Net

Other income, net was US$4.7 million, compared with US$7.0 million in the same period of 2022. The decrease in other income, net was mainly due to less reversal of certain payables due over three years with low payment probability as compared with the same period of 2022.

Net Income and Earnings Per ADS

Net income was US$5.0 million, compared with US$6.0 million in the same period of 2022. Non-GAAP net income was US$8.4 million in the second quarter of 2023, compared with US$9.8 million in the same period of 2022. The decrease in net income and non-GAAP net income was primarily attributable to the decreased other income as discussed above.

Diluted earnings per ADS in the second quarter of 2023 was approximately US$0.08 as compared with US$0.09 in the same period of 2022.

Cash Balance

As of June 30, 2023, the Company had cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments of US$258.5 million, compared with US$258.3 million as of March 31, 2023. The increase in cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments was mainly due to net operating cash inflow during this quarter, partially offset by repayment of a bank loan, spending on share buybacks, and the devaluation of the exchange rate of Chinese RMB against the US Dollars.

Share Repurchase Program

In June 2023, Xunlei announced that its Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to $20 million of its shares over the next 12 months. As of June 30, 2023, the Company had spent approximately US$1.0 million on share buybacks under the new share repurchase program.

Guidance for the Third Quarter of 2023

For the third quarter of 2023, Xunlei estimates total revenues to be between US$79 million and US$84 million, and the midpoint of the range represents a quarter-over-quarter decrease of approximately 21.9%. The decline is due to the impact of the downsizing of our domestic live streaming businesses whereas the operations of our subscription and cloud computing businesses are not affected. This estimate represents management's preliminary view as of the date of this press release, which is subject to change and any change could be material.

The accompanying reconciliation tables at the end of this release include details on the reconciliations between GAAP financial measures that are most directly comparable to the non-GAAP financial measures the Company has presented.
